It's no secret that employer health care expenditures are on the rise. Between health care legislation that is constantly in flux and ever increasing medical costs, it's no wonder that employers are starting to examine the financial feasibility of current employee benefits offerings and look for new solutions. Please join us for a roundtable specifically designed for CFOs that will focus on solutions to proactively control benefits costs amidst a changing healthcare landscape. Experts from Milliman, one of the largest, most highly respected independent actuarial firms in the country, will discuss informative and actionable benefit strategies and analytical resources being used to mine data and more effectively manage benefits programs and improve employers' bottom line.

AREAS OF DISCUSSION

- Health Care Reform - How will it affect your company?
- Comprehensive Health Plan Assessment - How do your plans compare with other local and national organizations in your industry?
- Stop-Loss Analysis - How did you arrive at your current stop-loss levels?
- Claims Positioning System - Have you done an in-depth claims analysis for medical and pharmacy?
- Self-Insured Feasibility Analysis - Should you consider self-funding?
- Incurred But Not Reported (IBNR) Report - Does your auditor require an independent third party FSA to sign your IBNR reserve and premium rate calculations?
- Renewal Evaluations - Is your renewal fair?
- 5-Year Projection - How will your costs look in five years?
- Benefit Positioning System - Do you know where you are positioned in comparison to your competition?
- Plan Design Analysis - Are your plan designs working for you? Are they valued correctly?
- Consumer Driven Health Plan Modeling - Are you considering HRA/HSA plans?
- Demographic/M&A Health Plan Analysis - What are the risk factors?
- Health Plan Assist - Decision tools to help employees pick a plan design
